

August 31, 2011

Issued as of 4:01 p.m.

ND Highway 20, south of McHenry now open

The North Dakota Department of Transportation (NDDOT) along with the North Dakota Highway Patrol has opened ND Highway 20, one half mile south of McHenry. Motorists should be advised that a temporary gravel surface is in place and traffic speeds have been reduced to 30 miles per hour.

For road information, motorists should go to www.dot.nd.gov or call 511.

###